

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
March 8, 2010

Citywide Banks' Anne Lovett Receives 'Banker of Distinction' Award from Colorado Bankers Association

AURORA, Colo. – March 8, 2010 – Citywide Banks' Community Lending Officer Anne Lovett received the 'Banker of Distinction' award from the Colorado Bankers Association (CBA) at its annual legislative update meeting on March 3.

Lovett, a 28-year veteran of the banking industry, is active in many community initiatives and serves as Citywide Banks' Community Reinvestment Act Officer. As CRA Officer, she has guided Citywide's community support efforts and helped the bank earn an outstanding rating from Federal Banking Regulators for CRA compliance. She also serves as board president of Colfax Community Network, and is a board member of Colorado Veterans for Housing, Rocky Mountain Housing Development Corporation, Inc., and Interfaith Voices for Justice.

A tireless advocate for low-income individuals, she has worked to improve affordable housing options and special lending programs in Colorado. She works with the Colorado Housing Investment Fund and Housing Colorado to help educate and promote the need for more affordable housing.

The annual 'Banker of Distinction' award recognizes a select few banking industry employees who encompass the community banking spirit through impressive personal involvement, dedication and support of activities vital to the health of local communities. Recipients are nominated by their peers and applications are reviewed by the CBA.

Locally owned and operated, Citywide Banks has been serving the Denver area business community for more than 45 years. Specializing in value-added service, Citywide has more than 250 employees providing commercial credit and cash management products through 13 branch locations across the metro area.

###

Contact: Jeff Schmitz, Executive Vice President
Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc.
303-365-3707