Boushelle Moves to Citywide Banks

Aurora, CO – April 28, 2008

Citywide Banks announces Gregory P. Boushelle has joined their commercial banking team as Senior Vice President. Previously, he was Market President – DTC, for First Community Bank where he was responsible for overall performance of the South Metro Denver market.

With over 16 years of Denver banking experience, Boushelle brings a strong background to his new position at Citywide. As Regional Finance Manager for Merrill Lynch he managed business financial services for the Colorado Region. His career in banking started with Western Bank of Las Cruces where he was Manager of the Business Administration Department and since then he has held leadership roles with two other major regional banks in the Denver area.

Boushelle received a BS in Business Administration from New Mexico State University, with a double major in finance and real estate and a minor in economics. He is NASDAQ Series 7 licensed.

An active member of the local Denver community, Boushelle has been involved with the South Metro Chamber of Commerce and the Denver Metro Chamber's Business Development Board and Small Business of The Year Board. He has also volunteered with Warren Village, Special Olympics, and is a long time patron of The Denver Center for the Performing Arts.

Locally owned and operated, Citywide Banks has been serving the Denver area business community for more than 40 years. Specializing in value-added service, Citywide has over 250 employees providing commercial credit, and cash management products through 14 branch locations across the metro area.
