Citywide Banks Breaks Ground for New Branch

Aurora, CO – Citywide Banks broke ground today for the new home of its Wheat Ridge Branch which will move from its current location at 4855 Ward Road to 52nd and Ward Road. The Wheat Ridge Branch is one of 14 locations for the locally owned and family operated bank.

The facility, which is scheduled to open in April 2009, will offer a full-service bank with sit-down teller desks, a commercial night drop and a drive-up ATM. The branch will be part of a new development that will also include an Office Depot. The branch lobby will serve customers Monday through Friday 9am to 5pm; the drive-up will be open 8am to 6pm Monday through Friday.

Leading the team at Wheat Ridge will be President, Alan Parker, Senior Vice President, David Adzema and Branch Manager, Silvia Wells.

Locally owned and operated, Citywide Banks has been serving the Denver area business community for 45 years. Specializing in value-added service, Citywide has over 250 employees providing commercial credit, and cash management products through 14 branch locations across the metro area.
