Wilson Moves to Citywide Exchange

Aurora, CO – September 22, 2008

Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc. announces Tracey Wilson has joined Citywide Exchange as Vice President. He will specialize in providing 1031 exchange services to individuals and businesses looking for ways to defer capital gains when buying and selling investment property – both real estate and personal property used for business.

Wilson has over 15 years of experience in the financial industry, with a BS in Finance and Engineering, as well as an MBA. He started his career at Boettcher & Co in Denver and later worked in New York with Credit Suisse First Boston. He transitioned from institutional sales and trading to corporate finance at Merrill Lynch.

Wilson eventually returned to Denver to become Director of Training & Operations for Charles Schwab & Co. Later he served as the National Director for SUNGARD Trading Systems, and then as Director for Information Technology Sales at Qwest. Most recently, he was the Senior Exchange Consultant and Managing Director of The 1031 Exchange Experts.

He has consulted for The College of Financial Planning and has been an adjunct faculty member at Regis University in Denver where he taught accounting, finance, statistics and economics.

Citywide Exchange is a wholly owned subsidiary of Citywide Banks of Colorado, Inc. and an affiliate of Citywide Banks.
